

Because WE can feel it

by Stefan Pasti

(1 page; April 27, 2024)

It's not only in spring when I feel in my heart that there is Love in the World
--and I can feel it

So on one of these days I went for a stroll near the university

Of course, in this case it seemed like a bad dream like from 2024...

But--now we have changed our ways caring communities are where we live it really dawned on us, finally that we could build communities like this

And if there are always reminders from someone somewhere that we are off course we can always make it right

It's not only in spring
when I feel in my heart
that there is Love in the World
--and I can feel it

And now WE know there is Love in the World because WE can feel it